(2) Follow-up care for therapeutic surgical procedures includes only that care which is usually part of the surgical service. Complications, exacerbations, recurrence, or the presence of other compensable diseases or injuries requiring additional services should be reported with the identification of appropriate procedures. R 421.112 Determination of cash value of room and board.

Rule 112. (1) If board, rent, housing, lodging, meals, or similar advantage is extended in any medium other than cash as partial or entire remuneration for service constituting "employment" as defined in section 42 of 1936 PA 1, MCL 421.42, then the reasonable cash value of the board, rent, housing, lodging, meals, or similar advantage is wages unless the board, rent, housing, lodging, meals, or similar advantage is furnished solely for the convenience of the employer. However, for purposes of this rule, payments in any medium other than cash shall not apply to agricultural or domestic service, except for purposes of subrule (7) of this rule.

(2) If the cash value for the board, rent, housing, lodging, meals, or similar advantage is agreed upon in any contract of hire, then the amount agreed upon is the value of the board, rent, housing, lodging, meals, or similar advantage. Check stubs, pay envelopes, and other documents which are furnished to employees and which set forth cash value are acceptable as evidence as to the amount of the cash value agreed upon in any contract of hire, except as provided in subrules (4) and (6) of this rule.

(3) If the cash value for board, rent, housing, lodging, meals, or similar advantage is not agreed upon in a contract of hire, then the rate for board, rent, housing, lodging, meals, or similar advantage furnished in addition to money wages or wholly comprising the wages of an employed individual shall have the following cash value, except as provided in subrules (4) and (6) of this rule:

Full board and room, per week.....$64.96

Meals without lodging, per week..... 44.66

Meals without lodging, per day..... 7.45

Meals without lodging, per meal..... 2.29

Lodging without meals, per week.....20.87

Lodging without meals, per day..... 3.22

However, if lodging is furnished, for example, to superintendents of properties, caretakers, and janitors, then the value of the lodging shall be the amount that would be paid by an employee for similar or equivalent accommodations furnished by an individual other than his or her employer.

(4) At the request of any employer or employee or on its own motion, the agency or its authorized agent, may after the expiration of a 1-year period from the effective date of this rule and after affording reasonable opportunity at a hearing for the submission of relevant information in writing or in person, determine the reasonable cash value of board, rent, housing, lodging, meals, or similar advantage in a particular instance or in a group of instances if it is determined that the values fixed in, or arrived at, under subrule (3) of this rule or in the contract of hire do not properly reflect the reasonable cash value of the remuneration.

(5) The agency shall adjust the cash values in subrule (3) of this rule annually on March 1, based on a comparison of the United States department of labor, bureau of labor statistics, consumer price index for urban wage earners and clerical workers for Detroit-Ann Arbor, Michigan, for the preceding December with the corresponding United States department of labor, bureau of labor statistics, consumer price index for urban wage earners and clerical workers for Detroit-Ann Arbor, Michigan, for the December preceding that December.

(6) Except as provided in subrule (4) of this rule, if the agency determines that the reasonable cash value of board, rent, housing, lodging, meals, or similar advantage is other than as prescribed in a contract of hire or in subrule (3) of this rule, then the employer's payroll and contribution reports to the agency shall show the value of the remuneration as determined by the agency.

(7) For the purpose of determining whether an individual is "unemployed" as defined in section 48 1936 PA 1, MCL 421.48, the reasonable cash value of board, rent, housing, lodging, meals, or similar advantage as compensation for personal services shall also be established pursuant to this rule.

(ii) The amount paid.

(iii) The date of issuance.

(iv) The calendar week or period for which benefits have been paid.

(v) The designation of the employer.

(b) Each listing or facsimile of weekly charges and credits to an employer's account issued to an employer pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (a) of this subrule shall, in the absence of a pending protest by the employer affecting the validity of benefit payments included in the statement, constitute a determination of the charge to the employer's account. The determination is final unless further proceedings are taken pursuant to section 32a of the act.

(c) The agency shall mail a quarterly statement consisting of a summary listing of charges and credits to each reimbursing employer for billing and reconciliation purposes. The agency shall mail a quarterly statement consisting of a summary listing of charges and credits to each contributing employer for reconciliation purposes. Quarterly statements shall be subject to review and redetermination by the agency

Annual Administrative Code Supplement

as to the accuracy of the statement only if the employer requests the review and redetermination within 30 days after the date of mailing of the quarterly statement.

(2) If benefits are simultaneously chargeable to more than 1 employer, then the agency shall charge each employer the pro rata share of benefits based on wages paid to the claimant during the base period by that employer as compared to total base period wages paid to the claimant by all base period employers.

Training benefits paid pursuant to a determination that benefits are chargeable to more than 1 reimbursing employer, or to 1 or more reimbursing employers and the nonchargeable benefits account, shall be allocated to each reimbursing employer involved and charged as of the quarter in which payments are made. Extended benefits paid, and not reimbursed by the federal government, pursuant to a determination that benefits are chargeable to more than 1 employer shall be allocated to each employer involved and charged as of the quarter in which payments are made. Training benefits shall be allocated to each reimbursing employer involved in the individual's base period of the claim to which benefits are related on the basis of the ratio that the total wages paid during the base period by a reimbursing employer bears to the total amount of wages paid during the base period by all employers.

Extended benefits, to the extent not reimbursed by the federal government, shall be allocated to each employer involved in the individual's base period of the claim to which benefits are related on the basis of the ratio that the wages paid during the base period by an employer bears to the total amount of wages paid during the base period by all employers.

Benefits paid under a combined wage plan, where a claimant has earned wages in 2 or more states, shall be allocated and charged to each employer involved in the quarter in which the paying state requires reimbursement. Charges to each employer involved shall bear the same ratio for benefits paid to a claimant as the amount of each employer's wages in the base period bears to the total amount of claimant's base period wages.

Benefits paid under a federal-state combined wage plan, where a claimant earns wages with the federal government and a Michigan employer, shall be allocated and charged to each employer involved and charged as of the quarter in which payments are made. Charges to each employer involved shall bear the same ratio for benefits paid to a claimant as the amount of each employer's wages in the base period bears to the total amount of claimant's base period wages.

(3) The deductions from charges as provided in sections 20(a) and 20a of the act shall be in the form of credits to the employer's account. The agency shall mail listings of weekly charges and credits to the employer's account to the employer.

(4) If the agency finds that benefits paid and charged to an employer's account were improperly paid or charged, then the agency shall credit an amount equal to the charge based on such benefits to the employer's account as of the current period, except that the agency may consider the employer's request that the credit be made as of the quarter in which the charges were originally made, if the request is filed within 30 days after the mailing of the credit or within 30 days after the mailing of the contribution rate for the first calendar year which can be affected by the requested retroactive credit. However, if the employer files a request within 30 days of the mailing of a credit which, in combination with 1 or more preceding similar credits, is sufficient to change a contribution rate if the credits are given retroactive effect, then the request is considered as filed in a timely manner with respect to all such credits. If the allowance of retroactive credit affects contributions previously paid within the meaning of the provisions of section 16 of the act, then the agency shall make application for the credits not later than 3 years after the date of payment of the affected contributions. In the absence of an intentional false statement, misrepresentation, or concealment of a material fact by a claimant, the agency shall not issue credit to an employer where improper payment was made because of the employer's failure to furnish information in a timely manner in connection with a new or additional claim as provided in section 32(b) of the act.

(5) Charges and credits to the federal government as a reimbursing employer shall be issued pursuant to methods prescribed by the federal government.

R 421.205 Notification to employing unit of filing of claim; request for wage and separation information from employing unit; notification of commission of possible disqualification or ineligibility of claimant; "respond" defined.

Rule 205. (1) If an individual files a new claim for benefits, then the agency shall notify all of the individual's base period employers and employing units, the separating employer, and the individual's employers and employing units during the calendar quarter containing the Sunday of the week in which the new claim is effective, of all of the following:

- (a) The filing of the claim.
 - (b) The wages on record, as to the claimant, in the agency's wage database, or the wages reported by the claimant if there are no wages on record in the wage database.
 - (c) The reason for separation reported by the claimant.
 - (d) The claimant's weekly benefit amount.
 - (e) The maximum benefit amount that may be charged to each employer's account.
- (2) Any response by the employer or employing unit to the information provided by the agency shall be received by the agency within 10 calendar days from the date of mailing or personal service of the information on the form approved by the agency. The response shall contain all of the following information: A summary statement of pertinent facts if the employer or employing unit questions whether the individual should receive benefits or whether the employer's account should be charged for benefits.
- (b) New, additional, or corrected information concerning the individual's wages or the reason for the individual's separation from employment as may be pertinent to increase benefits or benefit charges, decrease benefits or benefit charges, or render the individual disqualified or ineligible to receive benefits.
- (3) If an individual files an additional or reopened claim, then the agency shall notify the separating employer or employing unit and the base period employers unless the agency receives a written request from the separating employing unit or from a base period employer that the notice not be provided. If the employer or employing unit has new, additional, or corrected information to provide the agency, or seeks to challenge the individual's eligibility or qualification for benefits or charges to the employer's account, then the information shall be received by the agency in writing or by any other means approved by the agency within 10 calendar days from the date of mailing or personal service of the notice.
- (4) An employer or employing unit shall notify the agency, in writing or by any other means approved by the agency, in the time period provided in subrules (2) or (3) of this rule, of the possible disqualification or ineligibility of a claimant, or of possible improper charges to the employer's account. The notice shall contain all of the following information:
- The individual's full name and social security number.
- (b) The employer's or employing unit's name, registration number, if one has been assigned by the agency, and the address to which any monetary determination or nonmonetary determination shall be directed.
 - (c) The last day worked by the individual.
 - (d) A statement of the circumstances on which the employer or employing unit relies in questioning whether the individual is entitled to benefits.
 - (5) If an employer or employing unit fails to comply with the requirements of subrule (2) or (3) of this rule within the 10-day period provided, then the agency shall pay benefits in accordance with the monetary determination.
 - (6) If an employer or employing unit provides new, additional, or corrected separation information beyond the time period specified in subrule (2) or (3) of this rule, then the response shall not form the basis of a determination or redetermination of disqualification or ineligibility for any claim period for which benefits

have been paid before the receipt by the agency of the response, except in any of the following circumstances:

(a) A showing that the employing unit could not reasonably comply with the due dates of subrule (2) or (3) of this rule.

(b) A showing of a false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure of a material fact on the part of the claimant.

(c) A showing of an agency administrative clerical error.

Separation information received by the agency from the employer more than 1 year after the mail date of the monetary determination shall not be considered by the agency. If new, additional, or corrected wage information is received by the agency from the employer after the 10-day period specified in subrule (2) or (3) of this rule, then the information shall not result in a decrease in benefit amount or benefit charge for any claim period for which benefits have been paid before the receipt by the agency of the response. Information received after the 10-day period shall, however, be used to increase a benefit amount or benefit charge for any claim period for which benefits have been paid before the receipt by the agency of the response.

(7) If the individual disagrees with the wage information contained in the agency's wage database, then the individual's statement shall be taken on a form designed for a statement or in any other manner approved by the agency and shall be provided to the employer by means of the monetary determination.

(8) If a notice is submitted by an employing unit indicating the sole reason for ineligibility to be leave of absence or vacation with pay and with respect to which period of time no claim was filed, then the agency shall, upon receipt and recording of appropriate evidence of reemployment by the employing unit granting the leave or vacation with pay, disregard the form without notification to the interested parties and without the necessity of making a determination with respect to the period of time during which the claimant was on a leave of absence.

(9) To provide new, additional, or corrected information to the agency within the time period specified, the employer may deliver the information to the agency at a location approved by the agency by computerized data exchange or other electronic or non-electronic means approved by the agency.

R 421.208 Registering for work.

Rule 208. (1) To comply with the registration requirements of section 28(1)(a) of 1936 PA 1, MCL 421.28(1)(a), a claimant shall register for work as instructed by the agency and fully and accurately supply information as to the claimant's past work experience and training and other personal data as may be necessary to assure that the claimant is considered for referral to any available suitable work.

(2) If a claimant indicates on the application for benefits that he or she expects to return to his or her separating or previous employer within 120 days, and if the agency finds the claimant to be job-attached or finds that the claimant is not an appropriate candidate for full employment services, then the claimant's application for benefits shall be used as the claimant's registration for work.

(3) If, in registering for work under subrule (1) of this rule, a claimant indicates that he or she is unwilling to be referred to or notified of work that the claimant is qualified to perform because of past experience or training and that is generally similar to work for which the claimant has received wages, then the agency shall make a determination as to the claimant's availability for suitable work.

(4) A laid off individual is not required to register for work if registering is waived by the agency upon receipt of written notification by the individual's employer that the layoff is temporary and that work is expected to be available within 45 calendar days following the last day the individual worked. A waiver is effective if the notification from the employer has been received by the agency before the individual has certified for his or her first compensable week following the layoff.

(5) An individual who is required to register for work to be eligible for unemployment benefits and who, with good cause, fails to do so, shall not be ineligible for benefits for the weeks for which the individual failed to register. "Good cause" for failure to register shall include, but not be limited to, either of the following:

(a) Misinformation provided by the agency or failure to provide access to the means of registration by the agency or designated entity.

(b) A reason described in rule R 421.210(2) of the Michigan Administrative Code.

R 421.210 Unemployment insurance benefit filing requirements; definitions.

Rule 210. (1) An individual shall receive benefits for any week of unemployment for which the individual filed a claim and reported in accordance with this rule and with the direction of the agency and for which the individual is otherwise eligible and qualified for benefits.

(2) As used in this rule:

(a) "Additional claim" means a claim filed by an individual to reestablish eligibility for benefits after an interruption in the claim series during an existing benefit year caused by a period of employment.

(b) "Claim series" means an uninterrupted period of weeks for which an individual claims benefits.

(c) "Continued claim" means a report filed by an individual who has filed a new, additional, or reopened claim and who is certifying as to eligibility for benefits for 1 or more weeks of unemployment.

(d) "Day of work" means a calendar day or portion of a calendar day on which an individual performed services for an employing unit under a contract of hire, including a calendar day or portion of a calendar day for which an individual received, or is entitled to receive, call-in pay. If an individual reports for work on a day on which the individual has been scheduled to work, but does not work because work is not available, then that day is considered a "day of work".

(e) "Good cause for late filing of a new, additional, or reopened claim" and "good cause for late reporting to file a continued claim" means that there is a justifiable reason, determined in accordance with a standard of conduct expected of an individual acting as a reasonable person in the light of all the circumstances, that prevented a timely filing or reporting to file as required by this rule. Examples of justifiable reasons that the agency may consider as constituting good cause include any of the following:

(i) Acts of God.

(ii) Working or reliance on a promise of work that did not materialize.

(iii) Closing of agency offices, or the failure of the agency's telephonic or electronic equipment, during scheduled hours of operation.

(iv) Delay or interruption in the delivery of mail or the delay or interruption of information by telephonic or other means by a business or governmental agency entrusted with the delivery of mail or of messages by telephonic or other means.

(v) Personal physical incapacity or the physical incapacity or death of a relative or ward of either the individual or the individual's spouse or of any person living in the same household as the individual claiming benefits.

(vi) Attendance at a funeral.

(vii) Incarceration.

(viii) Jury duty.

(f) "New claim" means a claim filed by an individual to establish eligibility for a new benefit year.

(g) "Reopened claim" means a claim filed by an individual to reestablish eligibility for benefits after an interruption in the claim series during an existing benefit year for a reason other than employment that is caused by a period of nonreporting.

(h) "Week of unemployment" means a week during which an individual is unemployed within the meaning of section 48 1936 PA 1, MCL 421.48.

(3) An individual shall file a new, additional, or reopened claim or shall report to file a continued claim as directed by the agency.

(4) To be filed on time and effective as of the beginning of the individual's first week of unemployment, a new or additional claim shall be received by the agency, in a manner prescribed by the agency, not later than the Friday after the end of the week containing the individual's last day of work. A reopened claim is effective as of the beginning of the week in which it is received by the agency.

(5) To be filed on time and effective for each week for which the individual is reporting to file, a continued claim shall be received by the agency, in a manner prescribed by the agency, not later than the Friday after the end of the last week of the period for which the claimant is instructed to report and has continued to report in a claim series. If an individual does not file a continued claim in a timely manner in accordance with this subrule, and if the filing is untimely without good cause, then the claim filed by the individual is a reopened claim.

(6) If an individual does not file a new, additional, or reopened claim as prescribed in subrules (4) and (5) of this rule, but files the new, additional, or reopened claim not later than the fourteenth calendar day after the time limits prescribed in subrules (4) and (5) of this rule, then the new, additional, or reopened claim is considered filed on time if the claimant has good cause for the lateness of the filing. If the claimant does not have good cause for the lateness of the filing, then the new, additional, or reopened claim is effective beginning with the week in which it is filed.

(7) If an individual does not report to file a continued claim within the time limits prescribed in subrules (4) and (5) of this rule, but reports to file the continued claim not later than the fourteenth calendar day after the time limits prescribed in subrules (4) and (5) of this rule, then the individual is considered to have reported on time to file the continued claim if the individual has good cause for the lateness of the reporting to file the continued claim. If the individual does not have good cause for the lateness of the reporting to file the continued claim, then the reporting to file the continued claim is a reopened claim.

(8) If an individual files a new, additional, or reopened claim or reports to file a continued claim by mail, then the claim or report is considered received by the agency as of the date the mail is received by the agency.

(9) If an individual files a new, additional, or reopened claim or reports to file a continued claim by deposit in a designated agency drop box, then it is presumed that the claim was received by the agency on the previous business day if gathered in the first retrieval of the day if this presumption is required for the new, additional, or reopened claim to be considered filed on time or the continued claim to be considered a timely report.

(10) If the claimant is unable to file a claim timely because the agency's services are unavailable, then the claim is considered filed on time if it is received by the agency on the next workday.

R 421.216 Waiver of seeking work.

Rule 216. (1) A laid off individual need not seek work if, under section 28(1)(a) of the act, this requirement is waived by the agency upon written notification by the individual's employer that the layoff is temporary and that work is expected to be available within 45 calendar days following the last day the individual worked. A waiver is effective if the agency receives notification from the employer before the individual is certified for his or her first compensable week following the layoff.

(2) The agency is authorized, under section 28(1)(a) of the act, to waive the seeking work requirement where the agency finds that suitable work is not available in the locality where the individual resides and in those localities in which the individual earned base period wages. In instances where the seeking work requirement is waived under section 28(1)(a) of the act, the individual shall be registered for work and shall not be in a period of disqualification. In addition, all of the following provisions apply to the waiver of the seeking work requirement:

(a) In determining whether the seeking work requirement shall be waived under section 28(1)(a) of the act, suitable work is not available in a locality or localities determined to be located in a labor market area which has substantial unemployment. A "labor market area" means an area designated and approved by the United States department of labor for reporting purposes. In addition, any county not included in such a designated area is a separate labor market area.

Annual Administrative Code Supplement
2001 Edition

(b) The agency shall make a determination on the fifth of each month as to whether or not substantial unemployment exists in each labor market area of the state. "Substantial unemployment" exists in a labor market area when the total unadjusted unemployment rate in such area equals or exceeds 7 1/2% for each of the 3 months in a waiver base period. A determination that substantial unemployment exists in a labor market area shall remain in effect for a 1-month period from the fifteenth day of the month in which such determination was made to the fourteenth day of the next month. A "waiver base period" for determining whether or not substantial unemployment exists in a labor market area shall be the first 3 months of the 4-month period before the month in which such determination is made; the fourth month shall constitute a lag month and shall not be used in the waiver base period computation.

(c) The agency shall make a determination that a given labor market area no longer has substantial unemployment when the total unadjusted unemployment rate is less than 7 1/2% in each of the 2 most recent consecutive calendar months in the waiver base period.

(d) In determining whether the seeking work requirement shall be waived for a particular individual, a finding shall be made that substantial unemployment, as provided in subdivision (b) of this subrule, exists with respect to the labor market areas, as defined in subdivision (b) of this subrule, which include both the locality where the unemployed individual resides and the localities in which the individual was paid base period wages.

(e) The seeking work requirement shall not be waived under section 28(1)(a) of the act for individuals who have necessary skills for job vacancies known to exist or listed with the agency branch office located in the locality where the individual resides and the localities where the individual was paid base period wages. For the purpose of determining when the seeking work requirement shall not be waived, the agency shall refer to a list of occupational exceptions to the waiver in the affected labor market areas.

(3) The agency may, under section 28(1)(a) of the act, waive the seeking work requirement if an individual is on a short-term layoff, as used in this rule, with a definite return-to-work date which is not later than 15 consecutive calendar days beginning with the first day of scheduled unemployment resulting from the layoff, and if the seeking work requirement is not waived for the individual under section 28(1)(a) of the act. The waiver under this subrule shall be based on the presumption that suitable work is not available for that individual. Such presumption is based on the recognition that an individual on such a short-term layoff, as that term is used in this rule, is job-attached and is not likely to be hired by another employer for a short period. The agency shall verify, by telephone or written communication with the employer, that the layoff meets the criteria of this rule. The agency shall record the verification to include the return to work date and the name and title of the employer's representative verifying the date submitted. If the agency is unable to obtain confirmation from the employer at the time the claim is filed, then the determination as to whether the seeking work requirement is subject to waiver under this subrule shall be based on the evidence presented by the claimant. The application of a waiver in accordance with this subrule shall not extend beyond the above 15 consecutive calendar day period or the date the individual returns to work, whichever occurs first.

(4) The agency's authorization of the waiver of seeking work under subrules (1), (2), and (3) of this rule shall not relieve the unemployed individual claiming benefits of continuing to file claims pursuant to R 421.210 and being able and available to perform suitable full-time work.

R 421.270 Good cause for reconsideration and reopening.

Rule 270. (1) In determining if good cause exists under sections 32a, 33, and 34 of the act, after the 30-day protest or appeal period has expired, for reconsideration of any prior determination or redetermination or for reopening and review, good cause shall include, but not limited to, any of the following situations:

- (a) If an interested party has newly discovered material facts which, through no fault of the party, were not available to the party at the time of the determination, redetermination, order, or decision. However, a request for reconsideration of a determination or redetermination or for reopening a decision or order made after the expiration of the statutory 30-day period solely for the purpose of evading or avoiding such statutory period is not for good cause.
 - (b) If the agency has additional or corrected information.
 - (c) If an administrative clerical error is discovered in connection with a determination, redetermination, order, or decision.
 - (d) If an interested party has a legitimate inability to act sooner.
 - (e) If an interested party fails to receive a reasonable and timely notice, order, or decision.
 - (f) If an interested party is prevented from acting sooner due to an untimely delivery of a protest, appeal, or agency document by a business or governmental agency entrusted with delivery of mail.
 - (g) If an interested party has been misled by incorrect information from the agency, the office of appeals, or the board of review.
- (2) If, before the start of an initial hearing before the office of appeals, the agency receives new, additional, or corrected information or discovers an administrative clerical error in the claim, the matter may be returned to the agency for reconsideration and redetermination.

Rule 17. (1) The owner of a valid lottery ticket that has been sold by a licensed agent is presumed to be owned by the person or entity whose name is entered on the claim form, notwithstanding that the name of another person or entity may appear on the ticket face or reverse side.
